Title: Guess or Expect

The Message: Sometimes in life, things happen that are not in our control. Sometimes we just have to guess what we think will happen. However, it's not that way with God. The Bible tells us what to expect from God. We might not know when things will happen, but we know what things will happen eventually.

Title: Remembering Victories

The Message: Saturday is Remembrance Day, a time for us to remember all of the people who were willing to protect our country so that we could enjoy peace and prosperity. Christ was willing to stand up for us, as well. Everyday we should remember how He died to save us from sin.

Title: Slowly Revealed

The Message: God's universe is a big and complex place. It is like a puzzle, with pieces missing. God knows what the finished puzzle looks like, but some pieces have not yet been revealed to us. We have to accept that God reveals things slowly – when we are ready.

Title: Something that God does not find irritating

The Message: Sometimes we irritate each other when we talk too much and when we don't know when to stop. Fortunately, God does not get upset with frequent prayer. He likes to hear us talk to Him.

Title: Stones

The Message: Christ is the rock on which our church is built. He is the strong corner stone. We are the living stones that make a church. Today is the 139th anniversary of our church building, but it has only lasted this long because of the people – the living stones – who built it, served it and worshipped in it.

Title: Various Positions

The Message: When we play sports or when we take dance lessons, we learn certain moves and we learn how to play our positions. There are three moves that all Christians also need to learn. They are praising, praying and following.

Title: Love – Catch what you want?

The Message: If somebody throws you a candy, you want to catch it. If somebody throws you a rotten tomato, you would probably try to get out of the way. Sometimes God throws us blessings that we want. Other times he throws us responsibilities. We can make the choice to get out of the way, but would that be what God wants?

Title: Love – The Same, Yet Different

The Message: If somebody asks you to do something and you don't understand what they mean, you should ask them to explain. Then you should respond in the way that God would want you to.

Title: Love - Hate

The Message: Some of us love the taste of lemon juice. Some of us hate the taste of lemon juice. All of us have different things that we love and hate. However, it is never OK to hate another person. God tells us that we must love other people – ALL other people – in the same way that we love Him.

Title: Hard to Erase

The Message: It is impossible to erase something that you have written in ink or crayon. Even if you erase pencil there is often still a trace of the mistake that you are trying to correct. When you do something wrong, you can never erase the hurt that it caused another person. All you can do is ask for forgiveness. God has taught us to forgive others, just as He forgives us. All we have to do is ask, and God will erase all of our mistakes.
